Complaint About the "Nick Smith for Congress Committee" RE:

MUR 4800

I am writing to file a formal complaint with the FEC about irregularities in the campaign-finance reports filed by the Nick Smith for Congress Committee (FEC campaign ID #C00265157), the campaign committee for Rep. Nick Smith, R-MI/07 (FEC candidate ID #H2MI04021). The details of the complaint are presented in the attached document.

The apparent violations include (among others) excessive contributions by individuals, failure to report contributions from political action committees, and contributions by foreign nationals. Every specific item mentioned is documented with the 11-digit microfilm image numbers of the reports filed by the Smith committee and/or others with the FEC; other evidence is also described where available.

I hope that this action leads to justice being done, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Signed and sworn to before me this day.

Respondents:

Rep. Nick Smith

Nick Smith for Congress Committee

David J. Lambert [treasurer, 4/2/92~2/19/95]

F. Robert Lally [treasurer, 2/19/95~present]

1278[0] Addison Road • Addison, MI 49220 (for 1-62, G1-6)

P. O. Box 20142 • Lansing, MI 48901 (for 1-62, G1-6)

1522 Hudson Road • Hillsdale, MI 49242 (for 1-2, 6, 14, 16-17, 19, 22-23, 25-29, 32-35, 37-42, 44, 46, 48, 50-52, 55, 58, 61-62)

1515 Greenwood Ave. • Jackson, MI 49203 (for 3-5, 7-13, 15, 18, 20-21, 24, 30-31, 35-38, 43, 45, 47, 49, 53-54, 56-57, 59-60, G1-6)

(Note: Mr. Lambert was responsible, as Smith campaign treasurer, for reports filed in the 1991-92 and 1993-94 cycles; Mr. Lally prepared the 1995-96 and 1997-98 reports. Items 35 and 37-38 involve reports filed by both.)

fu C ÌŤ j Ę٨ Ō

Ĉ,

Note also that items 1-22, 2-41, 44-56, and 58-62 involved individual contributors – and those individuals probably share responsibility in greater or lesser degree for these items with the campaign and its personnel. Items 43 and 57 involve apparent contributions by businesses, so again the contributors share responsibility with the Smith campaign. By contrast, there is no evidence that the groups involved in items 23, 42, and G1-6 did anything wrong, so they are not named as co-respondents.)

• John F. Ansett * 208 W. Chicago Coldwater, MI 49036 (for 1)

(Note: The asterisk by Mr. Ansett's name indicates that there is evidence that the address given may be a work address. This symbol will also be used for other individuals below. In Mr. Ansett's case, the address is an exact match for the employer address reported.)

<ul> <li>Joyce E. Baker</li> </ul>		301 Jennings Landing	Battle Creek, MI 49015	(for	2)

	OR	24940 Ward	Dearborn, MI 48124	,	•

(Note: The two contributions reported have two different addresses and two different employers listed. There could be two different persons involved, which would mean no violation has been committed in this case. On the other hand, it may be that one or both addresses is a business address, and that the two companies are linked – for example, the Demmer Corporation could be a holding company for Jack Demmer Ford, and possibly other auto dealerships.)

William Dobson	3350 Geddes Road	Ann Arbor, MI 48105	(for 8 )
<ul> <li>Gary &amp; Shelley Farhat</li> </ul>	4700 Eagle Dr.	Jackson, MI 49201	(for 9)

(Note: This item involves the allocation of a contribution from the Farhats to an unspecified "other" election. The Smith committee has not been involved in any other elections than the standard primary and general elections for 1992, 1994, 1996, and 1998; thus, such an allocation would be unusual at best. If the Farhats themselves did not make that designation, they might not be involved in the violation, and would thus no longer be respondents.)

Constance Farver	3 Windcrest Ct.	Adrian, MI	49221	(for 10 )
Herb Farver	3 Windcrest Ct.	Adrian, MI	49221	(for 11)

(Note: A different address is given for both Farvers, but it matches the company – Blissfield Manufacturing – listed as employer for both. In fact, both are listed as its C.E.O. – a likely example of the inaccurate and perhaps misleading reporting which the Smith committee has been warned about by the FEC in the past.)

Peter Fletcher	P. O. Box 1527	Ypsilanti, MI 48197	(for 12)
<ul> <li>Terry[/T. A.] Forsberg</li> </ul>	1102 Bonanza Drive / P. O. Box 439	Okemos, MI 48864	(for 13 )
Masato (or Nasato) Fujihira	42423 Park Ridge	Novi MI 48375	(for 14)

(Note: The report lists the contributor's first name as "Nasato", but the complainant has reason to believe that his actual first name may be Masato. In any case, this person is believed to be a Japanese national who was, at the time, assigned to a Japanese-related firm in the area; thus, the best contact address may be the company:

Michigan Automotive Compressor, Inc. [MACI] • 2400 N. Dearing Road / P.O. Box 69 Parma, MI 49269

On the other hand, Mr. Fujihira wwn address is listed in Novi, near Detroit and 1½ to 2 hours away from Parma – so he may in fact have been working for one of the other Japanese companies listed in the section on Japanese-related contributions.)

Harvey Gainey	1624 Beard Drive SE	Grand Rapids, MI 49546	(for 15)
Ted Gatzaros *	400 Monroe	Detroit, MI 48226	(for 16)
<ul><li>Al[vin] Glick *</li></ul>	P. O. Box 927	Jackson, MI 49204	(for 17)

(Note: Other contributions from Mr. Glick were listed with a street address of 3104 Broad in Jackson, with and without the post-office box. Both have also been reported as addresses for his company, Alro Steel.)

Joyce Grace	3403 Stonewall Road	Jackson, MI 49203	(for 18)
<ul> <li>Atsuhiro Ha[y]akawa *</li> </ul>	P. O. Box 69	Parma, MI 49269	(for 19)

(Note: The report lists the contributor's last name as "Hajakawa", but the complainant has reason to believe that his actual last name may be Hayakawa. This person, too, is believed to be a Japanese national who was assigned to work at MACI at the time, but is not so now; this time, the only available contact address is the company.)

Erich P. Henkel	23456 Struwin Road	Battle Creek, MI 49017	(for 20 )
<ul> <li>Tom &amp; Laurel Henkel</li> </ul>	151 Honey Lane	Battle Creek, MI 49015	(for 21)

(Note: This item involves the allocation of a contribution from Tom & Laurel Henkel to an unspecified "other" election. As with the Farhats, if the Henkels did not make that designation, they might not be involved in the violation, and would thus no longer be respondents.)

• Jiro Iida	43200 Lochrisen Way, #3003	Novi, MI 48375	(for 22)
Larry Jennings	1926 O Drive	Clarklake, MI 49233	(for 24)

(Note: This item involves contributions from several years ago; the address reported for them was – and is – Mr. Jennings' business address. The above address was taken from more recent contributions.)

Masafumi Kamei
 795 Fritz Keiper Blvd.
 Battle Creek, MI 49015 (for 25)

(Note: The report lists the employer as MACI, but the contributor's address reported above is in fact for another Japanese-related firm in the area – Toyota Tsüshö. Thus, that is probably the best contact address.)

<ul> <li>Takashi Katoh</li> </ul>	1850 Lexington	Jackson, MI 49201	(for 26 )
<ul> <li>Tsuneko Katoh</li> </ul>	1850 Lexington	Jackson, MI 49201	(for 27)

(Note: The 1992 report indicates "Kotah" as the last name, but Mr. Katoh's 1993 donation was listed under this much more common and likely last name. Again, MACI is the employer, and probably the best contact point.)

Mineo Kawai
 One Denso Road
 Battle Creek, MI 49015 (for 28)

(Note: The address listed is for the donor's employer at the time, then called Nippondenso but now just Denso.)

Asa [E.] Kelley	6690 N. Rollin Highway	Addison, MI 49220	(for 29 )
Congresswoman Sue W. Kelly *	1222 LHOB	Washington, DC 20515	(for 30)

(Note: The address listed is Mr. McKay's work address; he is identified as an executive of Archway Cookies.)

Orville [D.] Merillat	3500 Birnwick Drive	Adrian, MI 49221	(for 37 )
Ruth Merillat	3500 Birnwick Drive	Adrian, MI 49221	(for 38)
David C. Miller	2127 Spring Arbor Drive	Jackson, MI 49203	(for 39 )
Masakazu Moritani Sr.	7825 Montero Drive	Prospect, KY 40059	(for 40 )

(Note: No employer information was reported for Mr. Moritani, and so there is no better contact information.)

P. O. Box 69 Shigenori Nakayama Parma, MI 49269 (for 41)

(Note: Again, MACI is the listed employer of the contributor, and probably the best contact point.)

 Sietsema Orchards 3271 Knapp NE Grand Rapids, MI 49505 (for 43)

(Note: This may be a family business. However, there is no known individual to contact.)

<ul><li>U. E. Patrick</li><li>George Petredean</li></ul>	P. O. Box 747 P. O. Box 235	Jackson, MI 49204 Homer, MI 49245	(for 44) (for 45)

<ul> <li>Shonojo Satake</li> </ul>	4301 W. Fox Ridge Lane	Greenwood, IN 46143	(for 48 )

(Note: This possible Japanese national is apparently still at the address listed in the report on this contribution.)

Kenji Takagi	< no street address >	Battle Creek, 490??	(for 52 )

(Note: The best way to contact this respondent may be through the greater Battle Creek area "Japan Club" of Japanese-related joint ventures, subsidiaries, etc. and the Japanese employees assigned to work at them. MACI, Denso, Toyota Tsüshö, and Hi-Lex Corporation - the complainant's former company - are all members.)

Complaint to FEC About Nick Smith for Congress Conshittee"

Complaint to FEC About Individual Contributions Reported by the "Nick Smith for Congress Committee"

These complaint items are numbered in alphabetical order of the names reported as contributors. Related contributions in the committee's reports to the FEC are listed for each, referenced with the FEC's 11-digit microfilm image numbers. (Note that some report pages have more than one relevant item.) Wherever the reports show allocations of contributions to elections, those allocations have been followed here. Otherwise, allocations are made to the next election upcoming, as per the general FEC rule. Also, contributions are divided evenly when allocated to two people, two elections, or both.

The final contribution above was listed in the first of two 48-hour notice reports filed by the Smith campaign after the 1998 pre-primary report. The money was not allocated by that report to any election. The same thing happened with the other donation listed in this notice, and with the two mentioned in the second notice. Since all four contributions were given and received (and reported) before the primary itself, the complainant has made the rebuttable presumption that they would be allocated to that election.

The second contribution here was listed in the second 48-hour notice report filed by the Smith campaign after the 1998 pre-primary report. MACI executive William Lambkin has donations listed for reference under item A of the Japanese section. As stated there, the Smith committee credited the 6/19/96 donation to Bill Lambkin, whose reported address differs from William's (1320 rather than 1340 Austscot[t] in Jackson) – but '96-'97 phone books and on-line directories list no Lambkins in Jackson except William S. and Beverly.

The reporting history is confusing. Apparently, the contribution was originally listed in a report for the first quarter of 1995, allocated to the 1994 general election, and dated 1/23/95. It was later shifted to the 1996 primary election (and a 3/23/95 date) in a second amendment to what was now a combined 1995 first-half report. (This election shift too was made via an affidavit dated 12/1/95, with an FEC image number of #96015860092.)

Internet Yellow-Pages directories confirm "Sietsema Orchards" at the address listed in the report (3271 Knapp St. NE, Grand Rapids). Judging by the White Pages listing for "Jerry Sietsema" at the same address, it would appear to be a family business. Still, any contribution should be made by an individual rather than the company,

The 1996 pre-primary report attributed the 7/3/96 contribution to George only, but that report was later generally subsumed into the 1996 3rd-quarter report, which listed both George and Betty. Thus, the money is here split between husband and wife. (This prominent example raises the question of how many of the split donations later reported were actually properly attributable to two persons. As with most of them, there is only one set of employer/occupation information for this contribution record.)

The Smith campaign also received donations from a George L Petredean (the address reported being a different post-office box number in Homer than George without a J.), as well as from other Petredeans. It seems that George and George J. are different people, so George J.'s contributions are not listed or documented here.

This is the final complaint item involving a contribution listed in a 48-hour notice report (the first) filed by the Smith campaign after the 1998 pre-primary report. Again, the money was not allocated by that report to any election – so the complainant has made the rebuttable presumption that it would be allocated to the 1998 primary election.

Special Focus: Contributions Link To Probable Japanese Individuals & Japanese Related Companies

When the complainant started to investigate the campaign-finance record of the Smith committee, his attention was drawn to the number and volume of contributions by individuals with Japanese names. The FEC reports list 14 donations (by 13 individuals); the total cash amount involved is $3,200.

At the time, the complainant was working as a translator for Hi-Lex Corporation, a U.S. subsidiary of a Japanese auto-parts company and a member of the "Japan Club" of Japanese-related firms in the general vicinity of Battle Creek. Several of the Japanese-named contributions listed another member company – Michigan Automotive Compressor, Inc. of Parma (abbreviated as MACI and sometimes mistyped as "Mackey") – as the employer of the head of household; some even showed the company's post-office box as the contributor's own address. These contributions total $1,850.

U.S employees of MACI (including several executives) and their families have also made contributions totaling $7,690 (not including $1,000 from the Lambkins on 6/3/97, after Bill had become an employee of Don Foods). Many of the contributions were probably associated with a fundraiser for the Country Club of Jackson (mentioned in a campaign expense item dated 11/18/92) identified as being linked to "Michigan Automotive".

The MACI numbers do not include $500 from one person, Masafumi Kamei, whose contribution was reported with MACI as the listed employer. This is because the contributor's reported address, 795 Fritz Keiper Road, was not for MACI but for another "Japan Club" member: Toyota Tsûshô. As the company's name implies, it is a member of the Toyota keiretsu or group of companies. MACI itself is a joint venture between Toyoda Automatic Machinery (Toyoda is the actual name of the family that founded the group) and the U.S. branch of Nippondensô (now called just Densô USA), which was originally a group member and still has close ties to Toyota.

Individuals linked with the Battle Creek and Southfield locations of Nippondensô have contributed $8,050. Included in this total is a $100 donation from Mineo Kawai; while the Smith campaign did not list Nippondensô as his employer, the address mentioned for him – One Denso Road – matches the Battle Creek plant's address.

Smith committee reports list $750 by Japanese-named individuals beyond those Japanese-linked contributions mentioned above. Jiro Iida of Freudenberg-NOK (a German-Japanese joint venture) donated $150 on 10/23/92. Five other individuals with no listed employers gave a total of $600, all in October of 1992. In fact, 11 of the 14 apparent Japanese contributions ($2,600 of the $3,200) were made in the month before the 1992 general election – and around the time of the "Michigan Automotive" fundraiser. (The exceptions were for Takashi Katoh, vice president of MACI, and his wife Tsuneko. They both gave in July, before a contested primary – there was no Democrat on the ballot opposing Smith that year – and Mr. Katoh also contributed in August 1993.)

MACI seems to be the center of this activity...and the complainant was contacted two months ago by a former senior buyer at MACI, Kim Lunderskov (address: 511 N. Marshall; Marshall, MI 49068; phone: 616-789-2685; e-mail: dvt@ameritech.net). Mr. Lunderskov confirmed that some of the Japanese persons named in the Smith committee reports were Japanese employees of MACI and other area companies (though he did not recognize others). He also said that the company itself paid to send him and other employees to fundraisers, that one of the people listed as an individual contributor to the Smith campaign may have had his name attached to a donation by another person (or by the company itself), and that he and other buyers were encouraged to contact suppliers and get donations from them for the Smith committee (which may explain some of the other possibly-Japanese donations).

The complainant feels these issues are worthy of further investigation by the FEC, but does not have further corroborative details on which to base specific complaints. As a member of the Battle Creek "Japan Club" but not involved in the donations, Hi-Lex Corporation (5200 Wayne Road; Battle Creek, MI 49015; telephone number 616-968-0781 or 616-968-6073; fax number 616-968-0885) might be a good neutral starting point for investigations. The companies indicated as involved could also be contacted, as could the two reported donors with Japanese names still apparently living at the reported addresses: Shonojo Satake and Isao Yoshida. (Japanese employees assigned to overseas branches are typically posted for a period of 3-5 years; thus, it would not be surprising if only 14% – 2 of 14 – of the individuals were at the same addresses as they were roughly six years ago, when their reported contributions were made.)

MACI(mistakenly reported as "Maci", "Mackey", and even "NACI") is Michigan Automotive Compressors Inc. of Parma, a joint venture of Nippondensô (which began in the Toyota keiretsu and still has capital and board members from Toyota) and Toyoda Automatic Machinery. In FEC reports, William Lambkin is as MACI's manufacturer's rep, "industry management", or VP/assistant VP. ("Bill" was reported at a different address – 1320, not 1340, Austscot[t] in Jackson – but 1996-97 phone books and on-line directories list no Lambkins in Jackson besides William S. and Beverly.)

Note that several of the names listed appear to be Japanese names. Evidence in the roster of the time for the Battle Creek area's "Japan Club" of Japanese-related companies (and the Japanese employees assigned to those U.S. branch offices and/or subsidiaries), and by telephone interviews, indicated that these people were in fact Japanese citizens who were in this country without permanent resident visas. This, if true, would represent a significant violation of the prohibition on contributions by foreign individuals. The presence of contributions by U.S. executives of this firm (and the end-of-'92-campaign dinner hrown for "Michigan Automotive" in return – as indicated in a report of a $691.55 expense item paid 11/18/92 to the Country Club of Jackson – FEC image #92014831082), and contribution from the other firms below, suggests the possibility of a problem pattern.

A few other points are worth noting for calculation purposes. Masafumi Kamei was reported as employed by MACI; however, the home address given for him matches the address of another Toyota-linked company in Battle Creek's Fort Custer Industrial Park: Toyota Tsûshô. This $500 amount is not included in the total for A given above, but rather under C below. Also, William S. Lambkin's designation of his $1,000 in early 1995 for the '96 primary (shifted from the '94 general) is reported three times, but only counted once. His contribution with his wife Beverly on 6/3/97 is not counted at all, since by that time he had left MACI and joined Don Foods.

As mentioned above, Nippondensô (now called just "Densô") started out as a member of the Toyota keiretsu, and some ties still exist (although the company is formally independent). William J. Harahan, sometimes reported as vice president at the company's facility in Southfield near Detroit, contributed to Smith early (within a month of Smith's declaration) and often. Stan Tooley, Nippondensô vice president at the Battle Creek plant, and his wife Beverly also made significant contributions. (Note that the Hull donations were originally reported as coming from Bobert only; the pages indicated above are for the amended report which split the donation between hasband and wife.)

The only Japanese name listed is that of Mineo Kawai. No employer is recorded for Mr. Kawai, but the address given for him does match the One Denso Road address of the company's Battle Creek factory/branch.

Jiro Iida was reported by the Smith campaign to be a sales manager for Freudenber[g]-NOK, a German/Japanese joint venture, in Plymouth. The complainant's information (gathered from Japanese co-workers at his former place of employment, the Japanese-related auto-parts firm Hi-Lex Corporation) suggests that NOK is not related to the Toyota keiretsu.

The FEC could contact them directly about their contributions.

Complaint to FEC About PAC Contributions to the "Nick Smith for Congress Committee"

These complaint items are numbered in alphabetical order of the names of political action committees (PACs) reporting contributions to the Smith committee. The contributions are referenced with the FEC's 11-digit microfilm image numbers for the reports made by the PACs. The PACs have both contributed and reported properly; any violations in these cases would lie purely with the Smith committee, for its failure to report the contributions. (It should be noted that the Smith committee has in the past returned some other checks sent by PACs, though this has taken up to a year for the return to show up in PAC reports. Some of the donations below may also be returned, although most are over a year old.)

G1. Keep Our Majority Political Action Committee [KOMPAC] (committee #C00307405) • 6344 Cavalier Corridor · Falls Church, VA 22044

98033260690 98Q2 rept., page 10 to Nick Smith for Congress Committee $1000.00 given 6/29/98

According to the Center for Responsive Politics (CRP), this PAC is a "leadership PAC" associated with Rep. Dennis Hastert (R-IL). This donation has just recently been sent, so it is the most likely to be returned.

G2. Leadership 2000 (committee #C00325969) • 1316 Lake Victoria Dr. · Lake Worth, FL 33461 98032811192 97YE rept., page 3 to Nick Smith for Congress Committee $ 500.00 given 10/17/96

The CRP reports this as a "leadership PAC" associated with Rep. Mark Foley (R-FL). It is also worth noting, perhaps, that this contribution was sent to a post-office box in Jackson rather than the main Smith fundraising address – a different post-office box in Lansing.

G3. National Pork Producers Council PorkPAC (committee #C00201871) • PO Box 10383 · Des Moines, IA 45678 96031251371 96preG report, page 5 to Nick Smith for Congress Committee $ 275.31 [IK] given 10/4/96

The report indicates that this expense was a reimbursement of Sam's Club in Lansing for a "Smith fundraiser (MI-7)". The evidence – including the other contributions listed on the same report page, which has "(in kind)" written in at the top left corner, as well as the complainant's own conversation with the candidate's wife at a town hall meeting last summer – is that this contribution was an in-kind gift of meat for that fundraiser.

G4. National Right to Life PAC (committee #C00111278) • 419 7th Street NW, Suite 500 · Washington, DC 20004 96031251371 96Q3 report, page 39 to Nick Smith for Congress Committee $ 16.00 [IK] given 9/30/96

The complainant has corresponded with this PAC, and been informed that the contribution reported was an in-kind donation of a video on the Clinton administration's Medicare policies.

Other Types of Questionable Reportings of Financial Transactions by "Nick Smith for Congress Committee" While investigating the Smith committee's reports to the FEC, the complainant found other irregularities, including:

- About a dozen contributions (including one of William Lambkin's, mentioned in item #33 above) have been reported with no date.
- Two in-kind contributions have been reported without matching in-kind expenses: $50 donated 9/30/92 by Jane Gray of Concord (FEC image #92014734203) and $500 from F. Hal Creal of Coldwater (FEC image #94015304627).
- As noted above, the 1996 pre-primary report (covering the period 7/1-17/96) was generally incorporated in a 3rd-quarter report covering 7/1-9/30/96. However, two 7/16/96 contributions in the 96preP report were not included in the 96Q3 report: a $250 donation by George Nash of Hillsdale (FEC image #96016173413) and a $20 gift by William Stewart of Union City (FEC image #96016173414).
- Many contributions are listed with home addresses matching information in the employer space. Post-office boxes are frequently found in place of street addresses; occasionally, no address at all is given.

In fact, the Nick Smith for Congress Committee has been recognized for laxity in reporting on several fronts:

- The independent Center for Responsive Politics ranked Smith among the worst members of the House of Representatives for reports missing employer/occupation information, with over 25% of the dollars from individual contributors not identified at all or incompletely identified. (The report is still available on the CRP's Web site; http://www.crp.org/crpdocs/oct97/top/disclosure.htm is the Internet address.)
- Smith has chosen to report some contributions of less than $200. However, despite FEC requests, he has not separated them from $200+ contributions.
- The FEC has also questioned the Smith committee about excessive advances to the campaign by workers and/or volunteers as well as improper, inaccurate, or absent categorizations of expenses. A major case of the latter may be the $6,370.24 paid to the Walker Group consulting firm of Minneapolis between May 10 and September 9 of 1996 for "copies" after repeated payments over the previous 1½ years.)

The complainant requests that the FEC make a thorough investigation of the full reporting record of the Nick Smith for Congress Committee, and take any action appropriate to the severity of these problems and others found.
